

CLERK PAGE THE GLOVER MURDER HARRIS STRIKE NEW POT AG STRIKE HARRIS STRIKE HARRIS STRIKE

After a hearing in the Superior Court to-day in which an injunction was sought to keep District Attorney John J. Higgins of Middlesex county from getting the nomination of the Lowell Democratic convention for the office, Higgins himself simplified the matter by declining to accept the nomination.

GLOVER MURDER HEARING DRAGGED IN.

The action was brought by a candidate Irwin of Everett, who was a judge in the Glover murder case. Irwin took the witness stand and was examined by Higgins. While the examination was in progress the Glover murder mystery was dragged in by inference. Irwin said he had heard that a judge said that Higgins ought to be impeached for the way in which he had conducted the case against Mrs. Lillian Glover and others indicted in connection with the murder.

Asks Name of Judge.

Mr. Irwin, while being cross-examined by District Attorney Higgins, said that he had been told by a certain person that one of the judges of the Superior Court had said that Mr. Higgins had been impeached for the manner in which he had conducted the case against Mrs. Lillian Glover and others indicted in connection with the murder.

Beta Out Conspiracy.

Q—Now, you seek to have me join in a conspiracy on my part to stop the democratic nomination? A—Yes.

Pistol Found in Mail Box.

Q—What did you find in the mail box? A—A pistol.

Was Refused Credit.

Q—Is there anything in this which you believe that I was a co-conspirator? A—Yes.

Alleges Five Boys Ruined Grape Crop.

Alfred M. Starnes, a lumber merchant who lives at No. 18 Bennett street, Dorchester, said that five boys had ruined his grape crop.

Wants All the Facts.

Q—Why do you call them my men? A—Because it was through them that an attempt was made to place you in a position where it didn't belong.

2 MORE ROBBERIES IN THE SOUTH END.

Two more robberies were reported in the South End, making a total of three in the last few days.

SHEA IS NOMINATED FOR LEGISLATURE.

James H. Shea of Milton was nominated for Representative of the Fourth North District at the Democratic county convention.

THIS MAN CAN "MAKE IT" HAMLIN

With the arrest here today of a suspicious looking Portia, who just arrived from Union, the police believe they have frustrated an attempt to kill King Minot. Special guards have been placed round the young man.

Lidon, whaling with anarchy, was saved from a trip of terror last night by the following pages of the Boston daily of warship in the harbor, according to reports from the capital today.

With decks cleared for action, the warship anchored in the harbor, and the night, and steadily proceeded to secure the harbor and landward coast among the Republicans with a view of shells if they threatened lives and property.

Earlier in the day another report had it that the mode had gained the upper hand and had lost a portion of the city. It was a case of a small scale, the marauding raiders and the raiders against the Republicans sought to continue their depredations.

The only taste of power which the mode had enjoyed was in the storming of some police and convicts when the regular soldiers were unable to overcome the mob.

Diarmuid Too Soon. According to another report from Lidon, the revolutionaries movement had gained such strength that the Government might be forced to flee the island.

Among the war craft sailing in the harbor were the United States cruiser, the Spanish ship, and the Spanish ship.

PARTY'S HOPE FOR A AVAILABLE MAN NOW IN MACLEOD

Mansfield Refuses to Enter Into Any Agreement with Mayor Fitzgerald—State Chairman Holds Key to the Situation.

Frederick W. Mansfield, selected as the candidate pro tem by the Democratic State Convention for Governor, in a statement made to the BOSTON AMERICAN this afternoon, declared emphatically that he would not withdraw for Congressman Eugene N. Fox.

John F. Fitzgerald, Democratic Mayor of Boston, has asked Mr. Mansfield not to withdraw in favor of him. Charles Sumner, Mr. Mansfield has declined to enter into any agreement with Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Mansfield will keep his pledge to the Democratic State convention.

Charles S. Hamlin will be nominated for Governor just as soon as former Senator Fred J. Macleod of Cambridge, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, makes up his mind to back with the rest of the committee to back with and quite willing in the Committee of Four met at the Boston Tavern.

When they adjourned they seemed to be as far apart as ever. Two of the four, Colonel Robert J. Crowley, of Lowell, and former Mayor William P. Hayes, of Springfield, are prepared to join hands with Macleod at any moment and help him nominate the one Democrat who can defeat Governor Dwyer and carry on a progressive campaign.

Quincy's Mission Fails. It became known that when Frederick W. Mansfield declined to read any promise to Mayor Fitzgerald that he would refrain from running for the city for Mayor, the Honorable John Quincy, who of Mr. Fitzgerald's most ardent adherents, promptly sought another interview with Mr. Mansfield.

Mr. Mansfield refused to see Mr. Quincy again at this time. He declined to talk with Mr. Quincy about the "talk" which the Committee of Four was still following.

It was said last week, and not denied, that prior to the Fall of 1909, when Mayor Quincy was elected, a similar episode of the city of Boston as a member of the Board of Trustees, had been at $5000 a year, had gone to Mr. Hamlin to ask him to run for Mayor.

Mr. Hamlin's attitude would be toward the Mayor's Democracy, in the event of Mr. Hamlin's election to the Governorship. It was said by those in the position to know, that Quincy's mission was to find out where Mr. Hamlin stood.

Following the delivery of the message, Quincy returned to the city. He was not seen again. He was not seen again. He was not seen again.

Turne Quincy Down. Mr. Hamlin absolutely refused to meet Mr. Quincy for this purpose at this time. He said nothing to indicate to Mr. Quincy that Mr. Hamlin's attitude was one of indifference.

ESTHER QUINN TELLS MORE ABOUT HER HEART THROBS FOR PROF. PECK

Boston Stenographer Is Equal to All Traps Set for Her by Lawyer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Miss Esther Quinn, who is suing Professor Harry Thurston Peck, formerly of Columbia University for $100,000 for alleged breach of promise, was forced several times today to deny that she had ever tried to blackmail anybody. Her attitude was in response to questions prompted at her at getting on speed by C. H. Francis, counsel for the professor, who examined Miss Quinn in special proceedings held in the office of her lawyer, Daniel O'Reilly.

Miss Quinn was calm, however, in all the traps set by Mr. Francis and could not be prevailed upon to admit that she had ever been engaged in a similar case.

Quizzed on Old Love.

One of the first questions that Mr. Francis asked was:

"Did you ever engage Peck?"

Mr. O'Reilly objected that to this, and it was not until after the objection was over that she had known a man in this way.

Friends are unable to understand his position, alliance with Fitzgerald and Lomasney. In the committee room he is seen to be one with "Doc" Fitzgerald, president of Lomasney, Macleod, and Lomasney's back together there against the line. William F. Hayes, former Mayor of Springfield, and Mayor Robert J. Crowley, also seated on the staff of Governor Lomasney.

Macleod's Career.

Like Mr. Hamlin, Chairman Macleod is a Harvard man. He was graduated from Harvard in the class of 1881. He is an attorney. He is prominent in the first round club and is President of the Harvard Club, being a native of Prince Edward Island.

Mr. Macleod is only forty years old. Some of his adherents believe that the election he is following the same line, calculated to please Martin Lomasney and John F. Fitzgerald may have a beneficial effect upon Senator Macleod's future career. For the time being he is being urged to make to be a candidate for Congress in the Eighth District against the Hon. Samuel W. McCall of Winchester.

Mr. Macleod was virtually the field marshal of the "Paw" campaign for the

COMMITTEE MEETS IN NEW QUARTERS

The Federal Hall Committee of Four had a hard time meeting today, on Tuesday, under way at the Bellevue. They met at 15 at the Boston Tavern and concluded that that was not a very good place for their deliberations and having moved to the Parker House.

There they could get a room. Then they waited up the hill to the Bellevue, so far as could be learned, they made a decision to agree on any candidate for Governor.

Macleod and Macleod had something of a growth because the great public had apparently decided themselves to take them with as much enthusiasm as their positions warranted. Macleod led off with a complaint.

"I want to say right now," declared Macleod, "that I am going to be contented by Mayor Fitzgerald. I never have been contented by him. I have been contented by him since Saturday. I can think and act for myself. I can make a living outside of politics."

Can Think for Himself.

"You might as well say, now, now, go with that. Joe, one of the reporters suggested."

"You going into this meeting with a fair reputation," continued Macleod. "I want to have a man nominated for Governor and I want to have him nominated quickly. I want a good man nominated—one that would place the great name of Boston in the State and one whom all Democrats could support."

"Martin Lomasney has asked me to go for the interest of the whole party and I don't want to go for it," declared Macleod. "At this point of Mr. Macleod's little speech one of the reporters tipped him on the shoulder and in a pleasing voice said: "Phew, Joe, don't make me laugh, can't you see I have a cracked lip?"

Committee Makes a Shift.

The committee made a shift from the Boston Tavern to the Parker House, it having been learned that Mayor Fitzgerald was leaving what happened in the committee room about as soon as it happened, if not before.

But when they had moved it to the Macleod, Mr. Pius led Senator Vane of the second ballot, and as it moved, the final ballot at Parker Hall. But Mr. Pius, the Mr. Vane, has announced that he is no longer a candidate. Unlike Mr. Vane, however, Congressman Pius has not taken a prominent stand in favor of the nomination of Mr. Hamlin.

It is up to Macleod.

There is reason to believe that the Committee of Four will remain in doubt, unless Fred J. Macleod rises to the situation and grasps the opportunity that James H. Vane has offered, declaring for Charles S. Hamlin.

Macleod, however, of Cambridge, Macleod of Harvard, Macleod of the Federal Club, can place with 25 per cent. of the Republican of Massachusetts. If he will, by giving Hamlin in nomination. The general impression, however, is that the committee will be extremely pleased to have Lomasney and John F. Fitzgerald, and Macleod and Senator Fitzgerald, and Lomasney represent in the politics, etc., of this Commonwealth.

It is up to Fred J. Macleod.

Fred J. Macleod has given the Democrats and Independents of Massachusetts, if he will, the candidate whom at this time they prefer.

CHARGE USE OF WHISKEY 4TH DISTRICT

MARLBORO, Oct. 11.—It was charged today that William H. Wilbur of Canton, now maintaining a residence in Marlboro, was a candidate for Congress at the Fourth District convention now in session in Boston.

Because money had been used to give over to his aide some of the thirteen delegates known to be implicated.

The charge was made by the forces supporting former Representative Harry L. Pierce of Leominster, just before the convention opened at 10 o'clock. The moment of the opening it was seen that the fight would be a struggle over the delegates, such as seemed likely.

The convention opened with Allen G. Burdick of Leominster, former State Senator, as the first speaker. He was followed by William H. Wilbur, who was the first speaker. The convention was held in the Marlboro hotel, and the delegates were gathered in the hall.

At the opening of the convention it was announced that the late Charles D. Threl, supporters of Harry L. Pierce, and Harry L. Wilbur, both of whom were in the hall, were the only two delegates who were in the hall.

The candidates had headquarters on either side of the entrance to the hall and it was a scene between the late campaign committee for the first to come to the delegates as they appeared at the hall.

Charles E. Dyer, chairman of the Pierce committee, announced that this position just before the opening of the convention.

Predicts Wilbur Victory.
"I said the night before the convention that Wilbur would win a very close race. My prediction came true. We have a still larger surprise for the Pierce men at the convention. I think that the Pierce men have a chance to win. I think to defeat the late campaign committee delegates are positively for Mr. Wilbur to defeat Mr. Pierce."

$150,000 FOR SCHOOL FOR LOUISIANA

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 11.—If you want to build the oldest school ever founded in America you want to go to Louisiana or to Chicago. The death of the widow of Colonel John Mauns La Monte in Chicago last week bequeathed $150,000 to be used in building a school in Louisiana.

The school is to be named after the late Colonel La Monte. The school is to be built in the town of New Orleans. The school is to be built in the town of New Orleans.

JOHNSON STARTS TO CLEAR MIX-UP ON LAJOIE FEAT

BAN JOHNSON PROBES LAJOIE'S FEAT; NAVIN CALLS IT 'RAW DEAL'

President Van Johnson of the American League today started an investigation to determine if there was any collusion at all in the feat of the Boston Red Sox pitcher, Babe Ruth, in his last game, when he pitched a no-hitter against the St. Louis Cardinals. The investigation will be conducted in person by the president of the American League and will go as far as to determine whether or not the feat was a "raw deal" or a "stunt" as it has been called.

There is a possibility that when the feat was pitched, the pitcher was in a state of mind that was not normal. The investigation will be conducted in person by the president of the American League and will go as far as to determine whether or not the feat was a "raw deal" or a "stunt" as it has been called.

BATTELSON, HARVEY ELEVEN OLDING FOR, SECRETS WINS IN THIRD, DRILL TODAY FOR AMHERST BATTLE

By E. V. B. PARKE.

Harvey Battelton is the program for the Amherst team in their second practice in the stadium this afternoon, and the long-suffering second team will come in for its usual round of hard knocks during the variety team and the cheerleaders. The variety team will be given a chance, and several members of the squad who have been out of the game for three or four days from injury will get back into the game.

There is time now for only two more practices before the game with Amherst Saturday and the coaches and players want to give the boys from Amherst the best of the season. The Amherst team has been in the game for a long time, and the coaches and players want to give the boys from Amherst the best of the season.

Campbell has charge of the team today after being laid up the greater part of last week with a slight illness. "Hank" Campbell, captain of the team and All-American, is not only a star player, but he is also a star coach. He has been in the game for a long time, and the coaches and players want to give the boys from Amherst the best of the season.

Overcoats

This is a season when every man wants to use care in clothing—the early morning and the cool of the evening—light clothing—pneumonia, then the wooden overcoat. P. S.—This was not started for a medical ad, but as a reminder it would cost $3.00 to cure a cold, and a light weight overcoat of black thibet, silk to edge, sold during my removal sale, will not only build a customer for Mitchell the Tailor for his new store, but will act as a preventive—Now the season is backward on overcoats, and I am loaded with the finest.

Kerseys, Blue, Black and Grey, the $35.00 kind 9.00
Melton, Black and Oxford Gray, the $25.00 kind 9.00
Fancy Polo Cloths with plaid backs, the $10.00 kind 12.50
Fancy Tweed, Stripes and Checks, the $5.00 kind 9.00
And then 1000 All Worsteds, single, under any style to your order 9.00

I start preparations for removal 6 weeks from today and want to clear every yard in my store.

Glad to know you old sport— what makes your face so red?

MR. NERVO, THIS IS PAPA.

COME THROUGH WITH ONE OF THOSE SMOKES.

YOU'RE WORTH QUITE A FEW SIMOLEONS — WHAT?

SAY, DID YOU GET IT ON THE LEVEL?

SIR?

BY BY — MAYBE I'LL BORROW A FEW THOUSAND OF YOU SOME DAY.

YOU SAY HIS NAME'S NERVO? TELL HIM NEVER TO DARKEN MY DOOR AGAIN!

THE BOLT
